

Protecting Your Privacy

The law is changing in May 2018. New General Data Protection Regulations (GDPR) comes into play which means that we need to be explicit in how we are using your personal data.

How we will use the information about you?

With your consent we will use it to; manage your requests and keep in contact with you regarding upcoming events.

We do not share any of your information with third parties at any time outside of our commitments to you.

We promise to keep your data safe and secure

Full privacy policy

At Kids Blossom Ltd, we value our customers' privacy. Which is why we are always completely transparent about why we need the personal information we request and how we will use it.

We are totally committed to protecting your information and using it responsibly. Please read our policy carefully to understand how we collect, use and store your information.

Kids Blossom Ltd is a registered company in England under company registration number:

11362585. If you have any questions about this privacy policy and how we use your information you can contact us via email at info@kidsblossom.co.uk

FAQS

How will we use information about you

We will only use your information where we have a legal basis to do so, and we will always respect your rights.

How we use your information to fulfil your requests and support you.

-To respond to or fulfil any requests or queries you make to us.

-If you contact us directly, we will use the information you give to us to handle your enquiry or request. This may include responding to your query or feedback, or sending you relevant information, such as service information or quotes.

Sharing your information

We will never share your information with third party organisations or with anyone else unless we are legally required to do so. Should this situation arise, we will always seek to inform you and request permission

Where we keep your information

Your information is kept on secure computer systems and in secure manual filing systems. This applies to information kept on staff, customers and account holders, for example when we:

- recruit staff
- manage staff records
- market our products or services

This could include:

- recording staff working hours
- giving delivery information to a delivery company
- backing up data

5. How long we keep your information

Personal data processed for any purpose or purposes shall not be kept for longer than is necessary.

We will:

Review the length of time we keep personal data;

securely delete information that is no longer needed for this purpose or these purposes; and update, archive or securely delete information if it goes out of date.

6. Changes to our Privacy Policy

We may update this policy to reflect changes in how we use your information. You may wish to check this policy each time you provide Kids Blossom Ltd with your information. Where appropriate, we will provide you with notice of any significant changes to how we use your information.